

I believe XM should have the right to broadcast whatever they want, since it is after all a PAY service. FM radio shouldn't feel threatened by XM wanting to do some of the same things they do since there are many people that don't want to pay for their radio. I'm not in an area where XM broadcasts traffic and weather, but I still support their right to do so. Thank you.